January 11th — National Day of Human Trafficking Awareness

In continuance of Soroptimist International of Raleigh, NC's commitment to raise awareness and foster action to stop human trafficking, our club meeting on Tuesday, January 11, 2010 will celebrate a significant action being taken in our state.

Our guest speaker is Donna Stewart, Director of Development for The Hope House in Asheville, NC. The Hope House is a safe-haven for domestic minor victims of sex trafficking. Ms. Stewart will share information with us about the mission and work of The Hope House and how we might advocate to address related issues. This is ideal timing, as January 11th was established by the U.S. Senate in 2007 as the National Day of Human Trafficking Awareness.

To combine action with raising awareness, we request you join us in collecting the items listed on the left. The Hope House has identified these specific items as some of their current, greatest needs. You can make a personal donation or share this flyer to bring awareness and offer an opportunity to local businesses, colleagues and acquaintances to join us in meeting these needs. Please bring donated items to the meeting.

We look forward to your participation!

The Hope House offers a place of seclusion, restoration and healing for domestic (minor) victims of sex trafficking (U.S. girls under 18)
